Dear Sir,

Your letter to Breinz just received. I sent you a postcard yesterday to say I am at above. You don't land at Breinz but go on to Giessbach, just across the <sup>lake</sup>~~river~~, or if you come by train you cross by the little steamer. ~~Water~~ If I know what hour you are arriving, I will meet you at the landing-stage. If not a funicular railway there,

Leads straight up to Hotel Griesbach, where I shall expect you to be my guest, for as long as you care to stay.
If the situation as explained by you seems to need further talks, I shall arrange to stay somewhere near you in Bavaria
as you suggest. Please bring a map of the suggested territory with you.

Looking forward to your arrival,

Yours sincerely,
Paul Hanzl
