Von Ali. 6/11 1902.

Handwritten text on a piece of aged, yellowish paper. The text is written in a cursive script and is oriented vertically. The paper has a triangular cutout on the left side. The text is faint and difficult to read, but appears to be a list or a set of instructions. The words are arranged in several columns, with some words appearing to be repeated or written in a similar style. The overall appearance is that of an old, possibly historical, document or note.
